

BROMM'S BREAD

Goes Direct From the Baker to the Boy

THE Baker looks happy because he has just baked what he KNOWS to be the very best bread that it is possible to bake. He has used the purest and best ingredients, plus the most modern baking appliances and his own skill.

THE Kid looks happy and healthy of course, because he is eating Bromm's bread. He is too little to go into the "why and wherefore" of the matter but he just knows it "tastes good." Couldn't be otherwise when it's Bromm's.
